Gillian Perry is the co-founder and long-time CEO of the Anne Frank Trust UK, the educational organization founded with family and friends of Otto Frank. Her in-depth presentation of Anne Frank's legacy is based on her 30 years of global research. In an effort to erase antisemitic attitudes, Gillian has been educating young people worldwide about the damaging effects of prejudice and discrimination in our world.

•
Doors will open at 10am for coffee/tea and breakfast pastries. The program will begin at 10:30am.

Children over 10 years old are welcome to attend.

•
Books will be available for purchase at the event, and at Readers' Book Store, 130 E. Napa Street, Sonoma.
